Jason Hyatt joins AEMC[®] Instruments as a NEW District Sales Engineer

Dover, NH – AEMC[®] Instruments, part of the Chauvin Arnoux[®] Group announces the appointment of Jason Hyatt as a District Sales Engineer. Jason will be responsible for sales covering the Southwest District including the following states: AZ, CA, CO, HI, NM, NV and UT.

AEMC[®] Instruments is thrilled to welcome Jason Hyatt to our growing team! With over 20 years of experience as an Electrical Engineer, Jason brings a wealth of expertise across electrical, mechanical, process, sales, and operations. His exceptional leadership, technical acumen, and problem-solving skills have made him a trusted resource in building strong, lasting customer relationships.

Beyond his technical abilities, Jason is known for his approachable, down-to-earth personality. His excellent communication skills and genuine rapport with both colleagues and clients make him an invaluable team player. Jason's deep knowledge of CMM product troubleshooting, system analysis, and design, paired with his hands-on approach, ensures that he will connect with and meet the unique needs of each customer.

Jason holds both a BS and AA in Electrical Engineering, and we are confident his skills, combined with his warm personality, will further elevate our commitment to innovation and customer success.

Please join us in welcoming him! You can reach Jason at jhyatt@aemc.com or (603) 241-8655.
